Are you missing the opera this summer?
If so, we have a treat for you!

Join us for a celebration of what would have been Opening Night of our 2020 Season.

On Friday, July 3 at 7 pm MT, tune in to our social media

... Friday, July 10, 8 pm MT, tune in to our social media channels for a digital event celebrating Rossini's The Barber of Seville. The evening is hosted by Susan Graham and features a performance by the Barber himself, baritone Joshua Hopkins.

Prepare a tailgate, dress in your best formal pajamas and tune in to our Facebook page, our YouTube Channel or our Website. Live tweet as you watch, share your #SFOFashion and #ShowUsYourTailgate to join the fun.

Can't join us on Friday night? Don't worry, you can watch later. The event will continue to be hosted on all our platforms.

This will be the first in a series of five tributes to each of our productions. Each video will launch on Saturdays at 7 pm MT following our Opening Weekend Celebration. Enjoy well-known arias sung by artists who were scheduled in 2020, along with insights from conductors, directors and more.

Upcoming:

Saturday, July 11

The Magic Flute hosted by Anthony Michaels-Moore

Saturday, July 18

Tristan und Isolde hosted by Ryan McKinny

Saturday, July 25

Rusalka hosted by Amanda Echalaz

Saturday, August 1

M. Butterfly hosted by Joshua Dennis
