

Fly Fishing

The Reel Life. Northern New Mexico is without a doubt one of North America's best-kept fly fishing secrets. Our climate, landscape and low population make for memorable year-round fishing for rainbow, brown, brook and cutthroat trout. The Pecos River, Jemez River, Chama River, the Rio Grande and their tributaries comprise the bulk of the fishing, along with the world-famous San Juan. Get the scoop on fishing in and around Santa Fe. Gear up with expert guide services for the best waters, fishing reports, classes and events.

thereellife.com. 526 North Guadalupe, DeVargas Mall (corner of Paseo de Peralta & Guadalupe)
505.995.8114

Cow Creek Ranch, an historic fly fishing ranch in the mountains of Pecos, offers a wide variety of outdoor recreational activities, including fly fishing, horseback riding, hiking, sporting clays, archery, and more. 4 1/2 miles of private stream and seven high mountain lakes teeming with trophy rainbows, browns, brookies, and cutthroat within walking distance from the lodge, makes this Orvis endorsed angler's paradise one of New Mexico's sweet spots. Private waters yield trout averaging 16"-20", with the 2012 record measuring in at 28.5". Experienced guides offer careful instruction to guests from beginners to seasoned anglers. An angler's paradise, this Orvis endorsed fly fishing lodge is one not to be missed.

cowcreekranch.com Cow Creek, Pecos 505.757.2107

HIGH DESERT ANGLER. A full service fly shop, school and guide service. High Desert Angler offers year round fly-fishing on private and public waters all over New Mexico. These waters include the Rio Grande, Pecos, San Juan, Los Pinos, Cimarron, Valle Vidal, Brazos and Jemez areas. We can cater or trips to any skill level and desire. We also specialize in fly-fishing for warm water species on several of our area reservoirs for a change of pace and an eager take on the fly. We have the ability to get you fly fishing on the most private, premier fly fishing destinations in Northern New Mexico.

highdesertangler.com 460 Cerrillos Road 505.988.7688